

SKILL DEVELOPMENT TRAINING UNDER VAN
VIGYAN KENDRA, NAGALAND

Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat conducted a two-day Skill Development Training under Van Vigyan Kendra, Nagaland at Tizit, Mon District, Nagaland in association with Mon Forest Division on 26-27 February, 2019. There were 30 participants including Farmers, JFMC Members, Forest Field Functionaries in the training.

The training was inaugurated by Mr. Nwang Koyank, Range Office, Tizit, Mon. Dr. Gaurav Mishra, Scientist C, RFRI, Jorhat, welcomed all the participants and appealed them to take advantage of the opportunity of learning during the training Program.

Shri Kumud Borah, Technical Officer, RFRI delivered presentation on various aspects of bamboo including its importance, distribution, utilization, propagation methods, nursery management and commercial cultivation. He demonstrated various bamboo propagation techniques and plantation techniques during the training.

Shri Rajarshi Bhattacharyya, Technical Officer, RFRI imparted training on vermicomposting technology. He also explained how to construct low cost, collapsible vermicomposting unit by bamboo.

Dr. Gaurav Mishra, Scientist C, delivered a presentation on Agarwood and its nursery and plantation. He discussed in detailed about the Agar nursery raising, management, plantation and also spoke about the market potential.

Shri Rajarshi Bhattacharyya delivered a presentation on the role of Agro-forestry in doubling the income of farmers. He explained various ways by which income of farmers could be made doubled.

After the interaction session with participants, certificates were distributed to all the participants. Dr. Gaurav Mishra gave vote of thanks to participants and Forest Officials.

Skill Development Training at Tizit, Mon, Nagaland | 2019

